RUSSIANS IN THE REAR ALLIES ON THE FRONT

Russia's Black Sea Fleet of Big Warships Is Steaming Toward the Bosphorus—Last Sighted Within One Hundred Miles of Constantinople—Reported the Sultan of Turkey Has Already Fled Constantinople—Two German Submarines Have Been Sunk and the Crew of the U-8 Are Prisoners—War Brings Much Suffering to Spain's Unemployed—One Thousand Dead French Lie Before German Batteries—American Vessels Unload Their Cargoes—Russians Take Bukovina Capital—Confusing Reports from Dardanelles Bombardment.

[By Associated Press.] London, March 5.—A Rome dispatch says the Russian Black Sea fleet is now steaming toward the Bosphorus. Bucharest reports this fleet has passed the Bulgarian port of Burgas, which is about one hundred miles north of Constantinople.

The inference from these reports is that the Russian warships will attack Constantinople at the back door while the French and British attack the front.

SULTAN REPORTED FLED.
[By Associated Press.] London, March 5.—An unconfirmed report says the Sultan of Turkey already has fled from Constantinople.

Two Submarines Sunk.
[By Associated Press.] London, March 5.—It is officially announced that two German submarines have been sunk in British waters. They were the U-9, the same boat whose sinking the French announced last night, and the unnamed boat hit by the Thoris, previously reported, and now confirmed officially as sunk.

Galveston Boat Saw Merchantmen Sunk.
[By Associated Press.] Bremen, March 5.—The American cotton steamer Gulfight, arriving from Galveston, is reported by local papers to have witnessed German submarines sinking two British merchantmen in the English Channel.

War Brings Suffering to Spain.
[By Associated Press.] Madrid, March 5.—There is great suffering in Spain on account of the war. Bread and meat are high. Workmen are idle in Cadiz, Saragossa and Seville. Other towns report serious food riots.

German Statement.
[By Associated Press.] Berlin, March 5.—(Official.)—South of Ypres the Germans yesterday inflicted considerable losses on the British with their artillery fire. The Germans repulsed all the French attacks in Champagne south of Lennesnil. Near Celles over one thousand dead Frenchmen lie in front of the German wire entrenchments, killed in several charges.

Russians Take Bukovina Capital.
[By Associated Press.] London, March 5.—A Roumanian dispatch says the Russians have forced the Austrians to evacuate Czerowitz, capital of Bukovina, which the Austrians recently captured. The main Austrian army in Bukovina is reported to have retired south of the Carpathians.

Confusing Dardanelles Reports.
[By Associated Press.] London, March 5.—The attack on the Dardanelles continues, but there is such a confusion of reports that it is impossible to obtain a clear idea of what has been accomplished.

Garrison Will Investigate.
[By Associated Press.] Washington, March 5.—Secretary of War Garrison ordered army officials to investigate reports that American militia officers are serving with the Canadian forces enlisted in the foreign service.

Crew of U-8 Prisoners.
[By Associated Press.] Dover, England, March 5.—The crew of the German submarine U-8, numbering twenty-nine, were brought ashore as prisoners here today. The U-8 was one of the smaller submarines.

American Vessels Unload.
[By Associated Press.] London, March 5.—As a result of the British blockade announcement, it is reported several American vessels, which had been taking on cargoes at German ports have unloaded these cargoes.

Foreigners Kick ON CARRANZA MONEY
[By Associated Press.] Washington, March 5.—The foreigners in Mexico City are preparing a protest against Obregon's latest decree compelling the acceptance of Carranza money in exchange for their goods.
